

An Act

To provide certain authorities for the Central Intelligence Agency and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES IN CONGRESS ASSEMBLED,

Sec. 1. 61 Stat. 498, amended 63 Stat. 880 (50 U.S.C. 403(a)) is hereby amended by deleting the figure "$16,000" and substituting in lieu thereof the figure "$17,500."

Sec. 2. 61 Stat. 498, amended 63 Stat. 880 (50 U.S.C. 403(b)(2)) is amended by deleting the second sentence thereof and substituting the following:

"Any such commissioned officer while serving in the office of Director shall hold the rank of general or equivalent grade and such rank or grade shall be in addition to numbers otherwise authorized by law: Provided, That he shall, while so serving, receive the pay provided for a civilian Director and will receive no military pay or allowances. Any such commissioned officer, after having served more than four years as Director, shall be entitled, at his own request or if otherwise qualified, to retire with, and when so retired shall be entitled to receive, the retired pay authorized by law for the grade of general or equivalent grade."

Sec. 3. 61 Stat. 498, amended 63 Stat. 880 (50 U.S.C. 403) is further amended by the addition of a new subparagraph to read as follows:

"(g) Deputy Directors; appointment and compensation

(1) There shall be a Deputy Director of Central Intelligence who shall receive compensation at the rate of $16,000 a year. The Deputy Director of Central Intelligence shall perform such duties and exercise such powers as shall be prescribed by the Director of Central Intelligence or by law and shall act for, and exercise the powers of, the Director during his absence or disability.

(2) In addition to the Deputy Director of Central Intelligence, the Director of Central Intelligence is authorized to appoint three Deputy Directors, each of whom shall receive compensation at the rate of $15,000 a year and who shall perform such duties as the Director may prescribe.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a commissioned officer of the armed services may be appointed to any of the positions established by this section, and his acceptance of and service in such office, shall in no way affect any status, office, rank, or grade he may occupy or hold in the armed services, or any emolument, perquisite, right, privilege, or benefit incident to or arising out of any such status, office, rank, or grade. Any such commissioned officer shall, while serving in any of the offices established by this section, receive the military pay and allowances (active or retired, as the case may be) payable to a commissioned officer of his grade and length of service and shall be paid, from any funds available to defray the expenses of the Agency, annual compensation at a rate equal to the amount by which the salary established for such a position exceeds the amount of his annual military pay and allowances.

Sec. 4. Such military and naval commissioned officer personnel as may be appointed, ordered, or detailed to serve with the Central Intelligence Agency may be employed by their respective services in addition to the number otherwise authorized and appropriated for.

Sec. 5. 65 Stat. 89 (50 U.S.C. 403(f)(1)) is amended by deleting the word "fifteen" and substituting the words "seventy five."

Sec. 6. The Central Intelligence Agency is hereby exempted from the provisions of the "Performance Rating Act of 1950," 64 Stat. 1098 (5 U.S.C. 1121, 2001-2007).

Sec. 7. 63 Stat. 212, amended 64 Stat. 450 (50 U.S.C. 4031) is hereby repealed.

Sec. 8. 63 Stat. 212 (50 U.S.C. 403)(a)(1) is amended by deleting the words "payment of claims pursuant to Title 28;" and substituting the following: "payment of claims pursuant to Chapter 171 of Title 28;".

Sec. 9. All laws or part of laws inconsistent with this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.
